ARCHITECT TO BE HIRED BY SCHOOLS

Overcrowded Conditions Discovered by Board Members

PORTABLE HOUSES NEEDED

One New Permanent Building Required Each Year

Employment of a school architect at a stated salary was approved by the Lima board of education in a session held Tuesday night in Central High school.

Dr. R. A. Buchanan, president of the board, declared a regular architect is needed as the board is in constant need of advice concerning buildings.

Besides, he added, the annual increase in attendance is large enough to require a new 10-room building. The board must look to the future and get ready for extensive building program. The schools are now overcrowded.

By employing an architect by the year, th schools will save money. In the past two years, some $39,000 has been paid out for services in drawing plans and supervision Dr. Buchanan is of the opinion this figure could have been reduced to half by hiring an architect by the year.

The board approved a plan to call all of the architectural firms in Lima together to submit proposals for the work.

ONE PLAN

Standardization of buildings in the future is desired by the board, so that units may be added as needed, and one set of general plans can be used in all future construction

Introduction of portable school houses to accommodate the overflow in some buildings was predicted by Dr. Buchanan. A sudden revival of industry, he said, or establishment of some new industry here, will make the situation acute. As it is, nearly all buildings are crowded, especially in the northeast section of the city

Dr. F. L. Bates was appointed as school physician at a salary of $1[illegible] a month. It will be his duty to make examinations and inspections in the schools.

A checkup of the general health conditions will be made at frequent intervals. Under this plan the board believes it possible to detect contagious diseases that otherwise might sweep thru the schools.

Plats showing the land at South High and Roosevelt building, to be acquired by appropriation proceedings were ordered drawn up and suit will be filed immediately in probate court.

WALK BIDS

Partial bids for building concrete walks at South High were opened J. Hickok offered to build walks for 26 cents a foot, and Green & Sawyer for 28 cents. Other bids will be opened later by the building committee which has power to award a contract.

Report of Superintendent Offenhauer recommended appointment of C. K. Graham, principal of South High, as a member of the board of school examiners. He also suggested employment of G. S. Long, graduate of Ohio State, as school tester.

His report in part follows:

"I am pleased to be able to report a continued excellent attendance. So far as our records carry at the present time practically every pupil due at school has been regularly enrolled and our attendance is increased as compared with the attendance of others years.

The continuation school in charge of Mr. Hartman, assisted by Miss Darragh and Miss Sharer, is comfortably housed in South High school and to date has enrolled 98 pupils. Many problems have arisen in connection with this new school, but I think the great majority of them have been satisfactorily met and the things that we hoped would be worked out in this school are for the most part being successfully done.

"The time is approaching when definite arrangements must be made for the night school and I am proceeding on the notion that it is the desire of the board that the night school be continued. I am also looking forward with a great deal of anticipation to a greater enrollment in the night school due to the fact that we have removed from the school all elements of compulsion. All those who will be enrolled will be enrolled on their own initiative. I am sure we shall have a larger and more enthusiastic response.

PRETTY OHIO PRINCESS CHOOSES APPAREL FOR HER JOURNEY TO TULSA

Revels In Wonderland Of Gowns, Hats, Wraps And Shoes At Deisel Co. Store — Displays Fine Judgment In Selections—Reception Saturday

Princess Ohio went shopping Tuesday afternoon.

The pretty little Delphos maid, chosen to represent Ohio at the International Petroleum Exposition at Tulsa, Okla., reveled in the wonderland of pretty gowns and hats and shoes and whatnot of the big Deisel Co. store and picked from the racks an array of clothes that would gladden the heart of any Cinderella.

Down the long aisles packed with creations direct from the most fashionable makers of New York, Miss Ruth Patton, the fortunate girl in The Lima News contest, wandered, escorted by R. B. Dunn, manager of the Deisel Co., and C. W. Buhl, manager of the ready-to-wear department.

THRONGS GREET HER

As she chose the articles of apparel she will take with her on the trip, she was the envy of hundreds of persons, mostly women, who had gathered at the store to meet her and see the articles chosen.

The best from the huge stock of everything a woman could possibly need was at the disposal of the princess and she showed wonderful taste in the selections. When she wears the various outfits she will be dressed in the heighth of fashion. People of the great state of Ohio will have the satisfaction of knowing that their representative at Tulsa will be as well dressed as any girl there can possibly be.

First came the adjusting of the great court train, a creation of beautiful scarlet and white, decorated with fringe and wonderful bead and jewel designs. This will be worn with a cream colored evening gown when the princess rides on the Ohio float in the big exposition pageant, Then the crown, an affair of beauty encrusted with rhinestones, was fitted. These were made by experts of the Deisel Co. from blueprints furnished by the exposition pageant manager.

Then the selection of gowns was made. Cold type could never describe the beauty of these. Every one had just arrived in Lima from the eastern markets, the very latest word in every respect.

The evening gown, ordered from New York by telegraph, to be worn with the royal robes, had not arrived but will be here before the princess leaves Monday afternoon over the Pennsylvania lines for Chicago.

PRETTY EVENING GOWN

An evening gown of silver cloth was selected and its beauty was beyond words to describe.

A three piece traveling suit, the latest thing, of tan and brown, was selected.

Then a navy blue gown trimmed in silver; then a black satin affair piped with velvet; next a blue of coat design and another tucked and banded in gold as well as sport clothes, were selected.

Next came the selection of a beautiful black coat trimmed with fur and then a gorgeous evening wrap of rich black with a touch of ermine.

The beauty of the young woman enhanced the beauty of the gowns and those who beheld her were struck by her charm, the thing that won for her over a long list of entries.

Hats of the newest styles were then picked from the millinery department, one for every occasion and to match the various gowns the princess will wear for the many social functions that have been arranged for the various state beauties.

Shoes to match the garments, silver ones for the court robes, black suede for afternoon and street shoes for other costumes were next selected. Hosiery to match came next and then the more intimate articles of apparel.

Silk undergarments and accessories were taken from stock and odds and ends that will make her wardrobe one any girl would envy were thrown in for good measure.

On the whole, it was an afternoon such as few girls in this vicinity ever have. The store management was greatly pleased at the good judgment the princess displayed in her selections and her pleasing personality when she met the big throng that had gathered to see her.

Miss Patton will come to Lima Friday for a final fitting of the various garments. Then on Saturday she will appear at the Deisel store in the various gowns she will take with her. The Deisel Co. in-

DAVIS TURNS HIS GUNS ON EX-OFFICIAL

Selection of Aide Warranted Ousting, Nominee Says

STANDS PAT ON CHARGES

Democratic Chief Replies to Ex-Attorney General

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — Having served notice that there is to be no obscuring of the issue that the American people shall be aroused to condemn and condone the betrayal of official trust, John W. Davis prepared today to return to the stump, determined to hit out harder than ever on the subject of corruption in government.

The notice from the Democratic presidential nominee was contained in a letter written yesterday to Harry M. Daugherty in reply to one in which the former attorney general protested against what he characterized as the "usually vague and all the more reprehensible" references which Davis has made during the campaign to his official conduct.

Agreeing with Daugherty that there is "something more important in this year of grace than election to office or political success," Davis said the issue of honesty of public officials could not be beclouded "by your forced effort to represent the real contest of this campaign as one between the defenders of the constitution and those who see to overthrow it under leaders fresh from a baptism of bolshevism in lurid and suffering Russia."

FIRST REQUISITE

"If the constitution is to endure," Davis said, "the first requisite is that men who hold office under it shall be honest and faithful to their trust. Its real enemies are not the reds and bolshevists of whom you speak, whose shadows frighten you, but corrupt and impotent public officials and their associates."

Asserting that instead of being "quite veiled," his allusions in the campaign to Daugherty had been "both direct and specific," Davis declared that he found no warrant whatever for withdrawing a single one of them

Charging that the employment of Gaston B. Means as an agent of the departmen of justice at a time when "his character already was notorious" was a "vicious maladministration," the Democratic nominee reiterated a previously expressed opinion that the appointment of Means "was of itself ample warrant for the summary removal of the attorney generally by whom he was appointed."

WHEELER INDICTMENT

In connection with the indictment of United State Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, Davis assailed both the department of justice and the Republican committee in connection with sending their agents to Montana. He added that the "significant thing" was that no effort to find an indictment had been made until the senator had assumed a leading part "in the criticism of the administration and of yourself."

Again the Democratic standard bearer wrote that the failure of Daugherty to defend himself before the senate investigating committee and the refusal of his brother to furnish information demanded of him in turn, produced "an exceedingly painful expression" upon the country.

Leaving New York this afternoon, Davis will renew his campaign in West Virginia, speaking there tomorrow noon at Charleston and tomorrow night at Huntington On Friday he will speak at Bluefield and will make a number of brief talks at places along the route between those cities.

Leaving West Virginia Friday night he will return to New York but will stop over at Wilmington Saturday evening to speak there. Next Monday he will deliver addresses at Frederick and Baltimore, Md., and then he plans to campaign in New England and New York state

WHEELER TALKS

WITH SENATOR WHEELER ENROUTE TO ST PAUL, Minn. — (By United Press) — Sensational rumors concerning the Means repudiation require that the Daugherty investigating committee reopen its hearings immediately, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Independent candidate for vice president, announced today as he moved into Montana for a campaign thru this favorable La Follette state.

ALLEGED REASON FOR WILBUR RECALL GIVEN

Prepared Speech Apologizing for G. O. P., is Charged

SHOWN AS LEAGUE FRIEND

Document Read to Club by Arkansas Senator

WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — Administration circles today hummed with duscussion of the alleged "betrayal" of Secretary of the Navy Wilbur by Senator Caraway, Democrat, of Arkansas, who read to a local Davis-Bryan club a speech he said Wilbur was to have made in Denver last Saturday night.

Portraying Wilbur thru the speech as having been an advocate of the league of nations, as apologizing for the Republican party's foreign policy and with having said that the negro question is the sole issue between the two old parties. Caraway charged that President Coolidge had recalled Wilbur from the coast to prevent delivery of the address.

Wilbur today refused to discuss the incident in any way.

"I will not discuss it. I will not be drawn into any controversy about it If you want to speculate on the ethics of the act you may but I will not," Wilbur said.

AMAZING DOCUMENT

Caraway said he considered the document one of the most amazing he had ever read.

"Not only was it a plea of guilty for the Republican foreign policy, but it made out President Coolidge as having opposed the senate investigations," said Caraway, adding he saw nothing indiscreet in making the address public by reading it.

Among important passages quoted by Caraway from the speech were:

"I was and am a believer in the league. I believe that if we went into the league immediately upon cessation of hostilities, we might save Europe from bankruptcy. I therefore sympathized with Woodrow Wilson and his campaign for the league and I would rather now praise him than blame him for his attitude.

"I may say in passing that I am now in favor of America entering the league. We have already suffered all the disadvantages which would have arisen from keeping out of the league.

"The fact is that there is only one issue in American politics—and that is the negro x x x The negro problem is what gives the Democratic party its backbone in the solid south and it gives it some hope of success."

Caraway today quoted Wilbur as further saying that President Coolidge, "like all lawyers," believed the investigation of corruption and graft before the senate last winter should have been conducted before grand juries

"This in effect, is an admission that the president opposed the investigations," said Caraway.

TRAIN WRECKED BY AUTO

Engineer is Killed When Stalled Car is Hit

KALAMAZOO, Mich. — (By Associated Press) — One person was killed and ten others were injured at 5 30 this morning when westbound passenger train number one on the Michigan Central struck a stalled automobile at the grade crossing entrance to the Hawthorne Paper Mill here and then left the rails, piling up the locomotive and eight coaches.

The dead—Arthur C. Adams, engineer, Jackson, Mich.

The injured included H. E. Martin, fireman, Jackson, Mich., shoulder and arm broken; Bruno Remicke, general manager of the Fleischmann Yeast Co, Chicago, left leg injured.

Running about an hour behind schedule the heavy train was traveling at a speed estimated by trainmen as between 50 and 60 miles an hour when it struck the automobile which stood across the rails. James Hilton, Kalamazoo, owner of the car, had gone into the mill to get fellow workmen to help him push the stalled automobile off the right of way.

Engineer Adams was scalded to death by escaped steam.

As Engineer Adams applied the emergency breaks the train consisting of eleven steel coaches apparently buckled in the middle. At one point just east of the crossing there were ten trucks piled in a heap in a hole fully six feet deep and about fifty feet long.

One of the Pullman cars torn loose from its trucks, shot to the right, knocked down telegraph poles and finally coming to a stop on the Lincoln-av pavement, right side up The next car following started in the same course and was partly tipped over. The remainder of the coaches were strewn along the right of way in all directions. The last three coaches remained on the rails

All main line tracks were torn up for a distance of 300 feet, the big steel rails being bent like hairpins One of the freaks of the wreck was the fact that less than a half dozen windows of the coaches were broken.

WOMAN NEAR COLLAPSE

Partners in Killing Plot in Separate Jails

MOUNT VERNON, Ills. — (By Associated Press) — The Rev. Lawrence M. Hight and Mrs. Elsie Sweetin, who have confessed that their mutual infatuation prompted the poisoning of the minister's wife and the woman's husband, today were held in separate jails. Mrs Sweetin was transferred yesterday to the Salem, Ills., prison because the local jail had no quarters for women. Fear of violence caused the removal of the Rev. Hight to Nashville.

The minister confessed Monday, implicating himself in the Sweetin case and assuming responsibility for his wife's death Mrs. Sweetin made a statement yesterday that she administered poison to her husband at the instigation of the clergyman.

It was reported from Nashville, that Rev. Hight was taking his fate with a smile and joked with the guards.

According to reports from Salem, Mrs Sweetin was near a collapse. She sobbed audibly at the mentioning of the three children and it was said that she had decided to place them in a Masonic orphanage.

Attendants at the jail said she had intimated she might supplement her confession.

VILLAGE STUNNED

INA, Ills.—(By United Press) —This little village of 400 is stunned today by the amazing tragedy involving its Methodist minister and its most beautiful woman. There is a mixture of sorrow, pity and anger.

Sorrow for a woman, respected and popular for many years as a dutiful wife and mother, who poisoned her husband for love of her pastor.

Anger for the man, Rev. Lawrence Hight, Methodist Episcopal circuit rider pastor, who poisoned his wife for love of the woman, Mrs Elsie Sweetin

Pity for the children, three of the pastor's and four of Elsie Sweetin's, all branded with the indelible stigma of the murders of their family.

The little rural community feels it has been made the center of a disgrace of a national proportion—a churchman has led a member of his flock to infidelity and murder

Hearing of Police Chief Set for Friday Afternoon

SERVES WARRANT ON SELF

Members of Police Force at Loss as to Own Authority

Chief of Police T. A. Lanker appeared in police court Wednesday morning armed with two criminal court warrants in which his own arrest was demanded, and entered pleas of not guilty before Judge Neal R. Poling to charges of violating the city "Stop" ordinance. The charges were preferred and sworn to Tuesday afternoon by Frank A. Hitchcock, deputy electrical inspector.

After the two warrants had reposed at police headquarters all of Tuesday afternoon and most of Wednesday morning without eliciting any action on the part of any member of the force to bring about the chief's arrest, Lanker took the matter into his own hands at 11 a. m. Wednesday.

Judge Poling read the warrants, in which Lanker was charged with ignoring a stop sign and with turning his machine around in the middle of the street in a congested district, entered the chief's not guilty plea on the court docket, and set the case down for trial on Friday, Sept. 26, at 4:30 p. m.

IN OFFICE

During most of Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning, Lanker sat in his office awaiting arrest, fully aware that two warrants in which he is charged with violating an ordinance which was passed by the city commission at his own instigation, were waiting to be served on him.

During this time Desk Sergeant Bruce Sodders and other members of the force were at a loss what to do with the warrants, which were left at the desk as usual, and were waiting to be served. Not a member of the force would serve the papers, each claiming that he had not authority to arrest his chief on a criminal court warrant.

Lanker denies both charges, which were sworn to by Hitchcock. He also denies that he threatened Hitchcock, and one of his alleged witnesses by telling them that "if you don't drop all this you will lose your jobs."

"I never talked to Hitchcock in his office," Lanker declares, "and never threatened him."

Hitchcock was fined $1 and costs, a total of $1.90, after he says Lanker refused to excuse him for failing to observe the stop rule, and told him to "tell it to the judge."

He alleges that less than an hour after he was fined he saw the Chief drive his automobile over the sign on Central-av at High-st, and later saw him turn his machine around in the middle of the street directly in front of the Central fire station.

MANY IN COURT

Thirty one alleged traffic violators were ordered to appear in court Wednesday morning for violations committed Tuesday afternoon and Tuesday night.

Twenty-three were charged with exceeding the four-hour parking limit. Of this number eight appeared and were dismissed. Warrants for 15 who failed to appear were out and will be served Wednesday afternoon

Eight offenders paid fines of $1 and costs, amounting to $4.90, when they admitted that they ignored the 'Stop' signs in various parts of the city They are:

HUGHES MAY BE PRESENT

Late President's Widow With Physician at End

MARION Ohio—(By Associated Press)—Funeral services for Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer who was personal physician to the late President Harding and who died suddenly here yesterday from heart trouble, will be held at the Sawyer home here at 2 30 Friday afternoon.

Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes, who is to address the Republican state campaign opening here Saturday, is expected to come on a day earlier for the funeral.

Messages of sympathy have been received from President Coolidge and Secretary Hughes by Mrs. Sawyer.

The message from President Coolidge read.

"The news of your husband's death just reached us. I need not tell you the shock it caused. Mrs. Coolidge joins me in expressing the deepest sympathy to you and your family in your loss. General Sawyer's life was a lesson of faithfulness and service in all of the varied activities that claimed his efforts."

Dr. Sawyer died peacefully, while sleeping. Returning to his home at White Oak Farm here yesterday afternoon, he complained of illness and his son, Dr. Carl Sawyer, took him into his office while he went for medicine. He was dead when his son returned.

MRS. HARDING PRESENT

Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, widow of the late president, has been making her home with the Sawyers since her husband's death and was present when death came. Under circumstances similar to the death of Mr. Harding, Mrs. Harding watched by the bedside of his friend and physician.

Slightly more than a year had elapsed since Dr. Sawyer stood beside the late president's bedside in a San Francisco hotel and watched while he passed on. He had been with Mr. Harding since shortly after his inauguration and was one of his closest friends.

Born near Wyandot, Ohio, sixty-four years ago, Dr. Sawyer obtained a practical education in the village school at Nevada. He began the study of medicine at the age of seventeen and was graduated from the Cleveland Homeopathic College of Cleveland in 1881. He began his practice at LaRue in April of the same year.

His widow and son are the only survivors.

LEOPOLD, LOEB DESPAIR

Told by Darrow There is no Hope of Freedom

JOLIET, Ills. — (By United Press)—"Those millionaire kids work too hard."

This is the complaint which other denim-clad convicts make of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb who are finishing their second week of life sentences for killing Bobby Franks, according to Warden John Whitman.

"They have been ideal prisoners," Whitman told Clarence Darrow, attorney for the two youths, when Darrow paid his first visit to the state penitentiary to see the boys yesterday. "They have been working hard and apparently they have been getting along well with the other prisoners

"The only complaint we've heard is that 'those millionaires work too hard'."

Foreman Leopold, Nathan's older brother, accompanied Darrow on his visit. He brought a lunch of roast duck, cake, cookies and candy which the boys ate lustily—talking to their visitors when they could find time between gulps.

Darrow said the boys "wondered" if there was any chance of freedom "It was hard to do, but I had to tell them no". I had to tell them they were here for good—forever," Darrow said

According to the penitentiary guards, both Leopold and Loeb are beginning to realize their situation Despair is just beginning to be apparent. Loeb, they say, is standing up somewhat better than Leopold, but both are shaking under prison routine.

"That damned gong at six o'clock every morning is what tears the life out of me," Loeb told Darrow.

IRISH URGED TO REMAIN AT HOME; EMIGRATION ON INCREASE, REPORTS SHOW

DUBLIN—There are urgent appeals in the Dublin press against the renewal of emigration to America. The Independent says "We were frequently assured in the past that had Ireland control of her own affairs emigration would cease But the British have departed the country is still being drained of its young men and women

In the past two months the American consul has received 8,000 applications for emigration visas, and the Free State quota soon will be exhausted The applicants are mostly from the county districts

Judge Cohalan of New York, who has lately been in Ireland, has advised young Irish men and women to seek a career in their own country rather than go to the United States or Canada

It is pointed out that large numbers of skilled British artisans, failing to get employment in America are returning to Great Britain in a steady stream, and that the prospects for Irish unskilled laborers are extremely unfavorable

GOTHENBURG, Sweden — American scientists have just taken the first film ever obtained of the migration of lemmings mole-like animals, one of the most unique phenomena of the animal world

Dr Clyde E. Fisher, a curator of the American Museum of Natural History, and Calveth Wells, now here from a recent trip to Lappland, say that a curious and absolutely unique film is that of the lemmings These rodents seem to multiply in teeming numbers at irregular intervals, and are now more multitudinous than they have been for 18 years A wanderer above the tree line in the Lappland mountains may suddenly see the ground covered by them for miles. They come by the millions, swimming rivers and climbing over mountain ridges Then either for lack of food or in conflict with natural enemies they perish in masses western Teachers' association will meet at Toledo on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 24 and 25. It has been customary for the schools of the city to be closed for this meeting and for the teachers to attend the program. I would recommend that this same plan be followed again this year.

The Americans declared that they had missed nothing of natural interest in Lappland. They even took special films of the mosquitoes.

"By the addition of the Roosevelt school and anticipating the opening of the Jefferson school, it has been necessary in order to work out our plans for art work to give a little additional help to the art teachers, and in order to do that I recommend the election of Miss Esther Wilhelm on salary schedule, who will take half time work at the McKinley school and spend the other half of her day at the Whittier relieving Miss Harbaugh, who would then take the fifth grade at Lincoln and transferring Miss Fisher from the fifth at Lincoln to the sixth and at the same time Miss Fisher taking the art work thruout the Whittier building. This is a step in the direction of the unification of our work in the different buildings in that Miss Fisher will have charge of the art work at Lincoln and can at the same time be of great assistance to the principal both in teaching and administrative work.

"I am very glad to report the splendid response that has come from the conditions in which teachers, pupils and patrons have found our school property. With very few exceptions, the schools thruout the city are in good physical condition and the members of the board are to be congratulated on the splendid work they have done during the vacation period."

COOLIDGE TALKS TO DRUGGISTS

Addresses Association from Portico of White House

RENEWS TAX CUT PLEDGE

Holds Out Promise of Peace and Prosperity

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press)—Service and mutual consideration were set up today by President Coolidge as the guiding principles in relations between the government and business in a talk to delegates to the convention here of the National Association of Retail Druggists.

The president again pledged himself to an administration guided so "that there may be reduction of taxation and harmony in our foreign relations that there may be peace and prosperity."

Pursuance of the policy of service, Mr. Coolidge said, will bring less and less interference by the agencies of government in business. It should be the aim of the government, he added, to make the contacts between business and the administration as few as possible "and to reduce the burdens and annoyances to the minimum which is consistent with conservation of the broadest public interest."

COMMON INTEREST

The president applauded the introduction into business transactions of the moral element—common interest between merchants and customers, the sence of responsibility on both sides, and this he declared has been noticeable in "your own business"

Mr. Coolidge addressed the delegates from the south portico of the White House

Senator Moses of New Hampshire, chairman of the Republican senatorial committee, reported to President Coolidge today that the senate campaign as well as the national was progressing satisfactorily. He said however that an attitude of overconfidence would be dangerous.

A recent survey, Mr. Moses said, showed that Republican senatorial candidates had fighting chances in Tennessee, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Colorado and Montana. Outside of the southern states he declared Republican candidates in all other states had a safe upper hand.

insanity. The intention of the woman is not known. Neither has any financial resources.

"Now I am ready for the gallows," Rev. Hight said just before county authorities spirited him and Elsie away in automobiles, fearing violence by citizens

Mrs Sweetin, in her confession blamed the pastor for suggesting that she poison her husband, said he obtained the arsenic which she put in chocolate drops, oatmeal and tomato soup, for her sick husband to eat.

Rev. Hight, a follower of horse races in his early days and said to have been converted to religion and brought into the service of the church by his wife for 26 years, has three children, a grown son who lives near here and two daughters of high school age. Both daughters visited him before his confession and expressed confidence in his innocence. Today they are homeless and dependent upon their brother.

The four children of the Sweetins ranging from 6 to 14 are being cared for by the murdered man's parents.

HANGING ADVOCATED

CHICAGO —(By United Press) —Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, minister of Ina, Ill., who confessed to killing his wife for the love of another woman, should be hanged, Rev. R. Keene Ryan, pastor of the Congregational church here, declared in an interview with the United Press today.

"Rev. Hight should be taken out and hanged as any other criminal," Rev. Ryan declared emphatically. "No mercy should be shown him. Minister or jockey it makes no difference."

Rev. Hight's crime cannot be said to constitute a blow at religion anymore than one faulty automibile can be held against the whole automobile industry, Rev. Ryan said.

"In my 35 years as a pastor, I have come in contact with criminals in all walks of life," he said. "In my experience I have looked upon crime as a mental condition, regardless of whether committed by minister or saloon-keeper.

"In my opinion, Rev. Hight is sane. As far as his heart and mind are concerned, he is a race horse man and does not represent the clergy. He cannot be said to represent the Methodist church, and Methodists should not be condemned, nor should they be downhearted because of this crime, which is more horrible than the Leopold-Loeb crime.

"Leopold and Loeb were youths and they killed a child. This man killed his wife and degraded the wife of another man.

"He should hang."

CHINESE SHELLS ROUT YANKS

Americans Flee from City Under Bombardment

TIEN TSIN, China—(By United Press—Americans and other foreigners at Shan Hai Kwan are camping out primitively on the seashore about five miles from the gateway city, driven from their homes by the daily bombardments of Chang Tso Lin's artillery.

Thus far only one foreign residence in Shan Hai Kwan, which soon may be the scene of a decisive battle between Chang's troops and the Chi Li forces of Wu Pei Fu, has been struck by shells.

General Wu claims to have inflicted heavy casualties among the Manchurians in an engagement at Wang Chia Tun in which the Chi Li army used armored cars in repulsing an attack.

TROOPS MASSED

SHANGHAI — (By Associated Press)—While the guns of both the Chekiang and Kiangsu armies west of this city remained silent this morning, the Lungwha headquarters of the Chekiang force expected their opponents to make the heaviest drive of the war tonight and tomorrow on the front between Liuho on the Yangtze river, and Tsingpu beyond the Shanghai-Nanking railway.

This prediction was based on information that the Kiangsu leaders have been massing every available man on this front and that they have been fortifying Anting, a town just behind their front line on the railway.

To meet this drive Chekiang claimed to have 14,000 loyal troops which have been withdrawn from the Ihing sector and moved to the main battle sector west of here.

PLAN TO APPLY FOR LEAGUE MEMBERSHIP

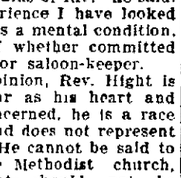

BERLIN — The German government today began the task of drawing up a memorandum setting forth the conditions under which Germany will in conformity wth yesterday's cabinet decision, apply for membership in the League of Nations. The memorandum, it is understood, will ask definite enlightenment as to whether Germany will be offered a permanent seat in the council of the league and it will expressly declare that Germany's entry into the league would in no way imply reaffirmation of her war guilt. It is also understood that the memorandum will request information as to the obligations Germany would undertake thru membership, especially regarding the transport of foreign troops thru Germany for the assistance of a neighboring state which might be attacked by a third power.

EDGE WINS IN SENATE RACE

Renominated by Big Majority in Jersey Primary

NEWARK, N. J. — (By Associated Press) — As belated returns from yesterday's primary came in today, the majority of Senator Walter E. Edge over National Committeeman Hamilton E. Kean, for nomination as the Republican senatorial candidate, increased to 52,418 with all but 232 scattering districts of the 2,559 reported.

The vote was Edge 211,490; Kean 159,072.

Kean telegraphed Senator Edge a pledge of 'hearty support."

"Congratulations on your victory" the message said. "I pledge you my hearty support."

Senator Edge's victory will mark the beginning of another hard fight to be decided in the election in November, it was admitted today. The Rev. Dr. James K. Shields, former superintendent of the state Anti-Saloon League, will be an independent candidate for senator in addition to Mayor F. W. Donnelly of Trenton, Democrat, and George L. Record, Jersey City independent progressive and adherent of Senator LaFollette. Dr. Shields had announced that he would withdraw from the contest if Kean were nominated.

The first woman to enter congress from New Jersey may have appeared in Mrs. Mary T. Norton, vice chairman of the state Democratic committee, who was unopposed for the nomination in a district which is normally Democratic.

CURFEW LAW

DELPHOS—Very little usiness was transacted by the members of the Delphos city council at their regular meeting at the City Hall, Tuesday night. Mayor G. N. LeaSure recommended that an ordinance prohibiting children of certain age from loitering on the streets and in the alleys after a certain hour at night. The mayor left the time to e decided by the acting solicitor.

RENEWS THRUST AT DAUGHERTY

former Attorney General Daugherty on the witness stand will prove true," Wheeler declared.

"If Means has documentary evidence involving the highest government officials and the Republican national committee, then these facts should be set before the public at once.

"Means and Daugherty should be called to the stand. Daugherty should be compelled to prove his charge that our witnesses were perjured. Means should be compelled to produce letters he claims to have which involve the most important men in our government in the plot surrounding his questionable repudiation of previous testimony.

Wheeler said he had communicated with Senator Brookhart, chairman of the committee, and Senator Ashurst, Democratic member, urging that they call a session to hear the new evidence. A list of questions concerning Daugherty's personal finances while a government official, already has been prepared.

WALSH TAKES FLING

GREAT FALLS, Mont. — (By Associated Press) — Recounting his work as prosecutor for the senate committee which investigated the naval reserve oil leases, Senator T. J. Walsh of Montana, Democratic condidate for re-election, opened his campaign here last night. Senator Walsh declared that he would let his record speak for itself and that he believed the people of Montana "will not convict themselves of being indifferent to the primal virtue of honesty."

Reverting from his set speech, Senator Walsh declared that the statement given out Sunday by Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, was "unworthy of comment." Daugherty, the senator asserted, "could do much more to rehabilitate himself by appearing on the witness stand and submitting to cross-examination and by opening his books to scrutiny than by issuing statements."

The proceedings in the oil lease investigation, he said, will ultimately recover for the people a section of oil lands valued at "hundreds of millions of dollars."

DAVIS LAUDED

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — (By United Press) — John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate, was lauded by his independent opponent Senator Burton K. Wheeler, today for "the courageous stands he has taken against the corrupt forces, including former Attorney-General Daugherty."

Wheeler called upon all progressives to read the letter Davis sent to Daugherty, in which the Democratic nominee stated that corrupt officials were the worst foes of honest government.

"For myself, I appreciate it not merely as an act of courtesy toward myself but as an act of justice" Wheeler told a hotel luncheon audience today.

YANKEES VISIT HISTORIC SPOTS

Journey to French Shrines of Huguenot Fame

NEW COINS DISTRIBUTED

Struck Off to Celebrate New York's Tercentenary

PARIS—(By Associated Press)—Culminating with the dedication of a memorial tablet in the little town of Avesnes, near the Belgian border, the birthplace of Jesse De Forest, one of the pioneers in the settlement of New York, the members of the Huguenot-Walloon New Netherland commission have just completed an interesting trip thru Europe visiting most of the spots connected with Huguenot history, and in France being received everywhere in Protestant circles. The official party has now broken up, and the members are seeking their respective ways homeward.

Wherever the commissioners went, they distributed the new fifty-cent pieces struck off at the mint to celebrate New York's tercentenary, and the part played in the metropolis' foundation by the sturdy Walloons and Dutch Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, King Albert of Belgium, and President Doumergue of France are among the most prominent recipients.

HISTORIC LANDMARKS

The stay in Paris of the Huguenot-Walloon commission was largely devoted to visiting the historic landmarks of Protestantism, including the home of Admiral de Coligny, the church of St. Germaine l'Auxerrois, from whose belfry pealed out the signal for the massacre of St. Bartholomew, and the buildings of the University of Paris. The Sunday of the official visit was marked by services in the American Protestant church in the Rue de Berri, and at the church of the Oratoire, near the Louvre, the principal edifice of the French Reformed church in the capital. During their stay, the American delegates were piloted by Pastor Andre Monod, one of the leaders of French Protestantism.

The party entered France from Italy, where they had gone to visit the Waldensian communities. Receptions were offered at Nimes, Montpellier, Arles, Carcassonne, Montauban, Bordeaux, and La Rochelle, all Protestant centres, the last-named seaport city having given its name to New Rochelle, New York. Down in the Cevennes mountains the party had the opportunity of visiting the famous "Museum of the Desert," which is full of souvenirs of the war of the Camisards, and there attended an "assembly" of the church in the open air, which united more than three thousand hardy Protestant mountaineers. Then they repaired to Aigues-Mortes to see the Cour de Constance, where the Huguenot women were imprisoned in the eighteenth century, and where they carved in the stone walls of their jail the watchword: "Resist!"

AMAZON EXPLORERS TO STUDY INDIAN CUSTOMS

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Dr. W. M. Stirling, it has been learned here, is soon to start on a trip to South America, where he will spend sevelar months in the unexplored regions of the upper Amazon, taking photographs of the life and customs of the local Indian tribes.

U.S. DRY ACT HITS PHILIPPINES

Shipment of Liquor to Islands Barred by Law

RULING IS HANDED DOWN

Territory Not Exempt as Believed by Gen. Wood

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The eighteenth amendment has stretched out its forbidding hands to the Philippine islands. Under a legal decision holding shipments to the islands of liquor for beverage purposes to be contrary to the amendment, the state department has instructed all United States consular officers to decline to clear vessels with such destination and cargo.

Disclosure that such orders had been issued last June was made by the department yesterday on receipt of dispatches from Manila indicating a belief on the part of Governor General Wood that the Philippines were exempted by the Volstead act, which a department of justice decision has held to be not the case.

The dispatches reported that General Wood has requested that the American consul at Hong Kong, China, be instructed to issue bills of health to vessels sailing from that port for the Philippines with liquor cargoes, indicating he believed the consul was refusing clearance because of a misunderstanding of the law.

While the legal opinion held that provisions of the amendment, applying to all states, territories and possessions, prohibiting liquor importations must be observed in the Philippines, it was explained at the department of justice that no attempt has been made to set up enforcement machinery in the islands under the Volstead act.

SOUTH AFRICA COLONY PROPOSED FOR ENGLISH

LONDON — Roland Bourne is endeavoring to create communal settlements in South Africa for Englishmen with small incomes who can no longer live in England in accordance with the standards to which they are accustomed. He says that England abounds in retired army and naval officers, and others with practically no capital but with small fixed incomes varying from $1,500 to $4,000 a year.

England has too forbidding a climate for such people, but in South Africa, on holdings of from two to five acres, they could be very happy.

EAGLE STOPS GAME

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — A possible eagle on the course of the Tallahassee country club here was made impossible by a real eagle, the big bird swooping down on the eighth green to seize a golf ball as it was trickling in the general direction of the cup. Fred C. Elliot was the victim and gained scant comfort from the assurance that the eagle was "an agency outside the match" and the incident could not be held "a rub to the green."

OLDEST MILL IN CITY CLOSES

100 Years Operation Halted as Industry Grows

PITTSBURGH, Pa., — One year less than a century ago an iron mill was built on the outskirts of Pittsburgh. It was a small affair, constructed on the banks of the Allegheny River by the firm of Miltenberger and Brown. For 99 years it grew and played an important part in the city's industrial life but now, instead of being on the outskirts of Pittsburgh, it stands within a few blocks of the very heart of the city's shopping and office center.

And as is the chief reason the old mill in Pittsburgh is being torn down. The firm of Brown and Co., Inc., the present owners, is going out of business because there is too much business. The site of the mill occupies about three acres and if it continued operation it would be necessary to expand. And there is no room for expansion. On three sides are tall buildings and on the other is the river. J. Stuart Brown, grandson of the founder, said he did not wish to assume the responsibility of erecting a new plant elsewhere, and he felt he deserved a rest. Consequently the business will be discontinued.

Decision to stop work in the mill was reached last June, and not a wheel of its machinery has turned since. When running at full capacity the plant employed between 400 and 600 men. Most of the old employes have found work elsewhere.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany — Dr. Hugo Eckner, who will pilot the airship ZR-3 on her trip across the Atlantic, is the man who makes the rule that no one on board the vessel shall smoke at any time, and he is also the man who breaks this rule.

Smoking on board an airship is exceedingly dangerous. An open flame might at any time ignite the gas. But the doctor, who is very fond of his pipe, occasionally locks himself in the pilot house and, entirely alone, takes a short and hurried smoke.

Lanker's Arrest

Chief of Police T. A. Lanker is accused of two traffic violations in Lima. His case probably will be disposed of Wednesday, it being in Criminal court.

We are not interested in what the court does with the case. We believe it will be handled fairly and whatever the outcome, it will be a valuable precedent for this city.

We are interested in having settled once and for all the question of whether those in the employ of the city have one set of rules and other citizens another. We hope this case settles that question.

It is not uncommon to see city cars dash thru the streets at speed entirely in violation of the traffic rules. This, we realize, is necessary in certain cases where officials are on duty. But when they are not, they should be governed by rules that apply to everyone.

Persons who violate traffic rules should be haled into court. We have had too much laxity in the past, which has tended to make travel on streets dangerous. If a sane system can be put into force and the public educated to heed it, we shall have made a great step forward.

Buy Ohio Coal

That is a good caption for this editorial. It expresses in a nutshell the explanation of the problem now confronting Ohio coal producers and miners.

Falling in step with producers, whose mines have been forced to close down, and with hundreds of miners who are thus thrown out of employment, Governor Donahey has called upon Attorney General Crabbe to make a searching inquiry concerning coal freight rates in this state, to the end that Ohio mined coal may better compete with West Virginia product.

The differential between Ohio and West Virginia in the matter of freight rates in Ohio has been and still is such as to form a condition that is virtually discriminatory against the Buckeye state industry. To remedy this state of affairs, revive a hampered industry, open Ohio mines and afford employment to miners now idle, Gov. Donahey seeks the establishment of a lower freight rate, so that there will be more incentive for Ohio manufacturers and householders to purchase the product of the mines of their home state.

It would seem that all parties interested are going about the remedying of conditions in exactly the right manner. Lower freight rates will not help if Ohio people are not schooled to the necessity of buying Ohio mined coal, in preference to the output of other states, altho the notion may exist that fuel from West Virginia is more desirable, and for which they are willing to and do pay more.

"Buy Ohio mined coal. There is none better. This is a sample." That legend appears on a huge block of coal weighing about a ton, taken from a mine in the Massillon, Stark-co district, displayed near the statehouse at Columbus, in aid of a campaign that seeks the reopening of mines in this state. Producers plan a publicity campaign during the next three months that it is believed will revive coal mining in Ohio.

Lima people can help their own state by insisting that their coal dealer supply them with a Buckeye product.

A Difference

You frequently hear a man say in lemonade tones: "Aw, it don't make much difference who's elected. The people are the goat, no matter who wins."

This indifferent attitude toward politics is as contagious as smallpox. And it is spreading. More than any other factor, it is responsible for the increasing tendency of citizens to fail to cast their ballots—nearly half staying away from the polls in the 1920 presidential election.

Shout it from the house-tops: It DOES make a difference who is elected. American municipalities long since learned that it does make a difference whether a community's chief of police is a strict law enforcer or in league with the underworld.

They long since learned that plunging a nation into war and sending the voters out to be shot at, depends principally on the makeup of Congress.

They long since learned that it does make a difference whether their boss in business is kindly, and fair or heartless and slave-driving.

And it does make a difference, who's elected to any political job—to all political jobs—from president down to dog catcher.

The cynical growl that it "Don't make no difference who's elected," is BIG TALK. It is preposterously false, obviously false.

In electing the president and other political office holders this fall you are to large extent determining what will happen to your pocketbook's contents in the next four years. The choice of president and other national employes will unquestionably have an important effect in shaping the cost of living and the conditions under which the rising generation will live.

Any man with common sense will see this. And he will not fail to vote.

Before voting, he will listen to both sides—rather, to all sides—in an attempt to arrive at the truth before selecting his favorite. Political speeches are not as interesting as Thrill Murders and baseball and movies, but they occasionally have horse sense and, if backed up by popular support, can lead to solutions of many of our gravest problems.

Increasingly, as the American people have taken politics less seriously, economic problems have become more serious. Accept the politician's Bunk with a grin, in one ear and out the other. But watch for Common Sense, then back it—for your own and family's prosperity, welfare and happiness.

Air Travel

At the American Legion convention in Massachusetts 500 delegates came by auto, only 41 by train. This doesn't surprise railroad men. They say the auto has cut tremendously into the railroad passenger business. So will the airplane, later.

Here's a prediction; popularization of flying is close at hand. The air plane will come into common use almost as quickly as the radio.

JUST FOLKS

BY EDGAR A. GUEST

JIM JOHNSON

Jim Johnson wasn't much to see,
No swell aristocrat was he.
No stylish clothes he wore;
He never owned a pair of spats,
He had no use for high silk hats
Or butlers at his door;
A suit some one might give to him
Was plenty good enough for Jim.

Jim Johnson was no learned man,
His grammar never smoothly ran.
His "did" was always "done."
You'd say: "I saw"; he'd say: "I seen."
I think you gather what I mean,
He was no polished son.
He fished and hunted all year thru
And made his living by it, too.

That power divine which shapes our ends
In curious ways provides us friends.
And so it was with Jim;
Each summer to his village came,
Great men of wealth and worldly fame,
To hunt and fish with him.
And they would sit the whole night thru
To hear him tell them what he knew.

Jim knew the stars, the birds, the trees,
The habits of the honey bees,
And all of nature's lore;
He knew a thousand secrets hid
From men who always say: "I did."
And here is something more:
These polished sons of life rejoiced
To hear the stories that he voiced.

They loved him. Underneath the rough
Exterior and his manner gruff
They saw the soul of him.
Nature had taught him all he knew,
And spite of flaws which critics view,
Had made a man of Jim.
The man who knows what you don't know
Always has something to bestow.

No More Castor Oil for the Children

Give Them Haley's Magnesia-Oil

Mothers, there's an easy way now to correct that sour stomach, and to relieve the effect of something that has "disagreed" with the youngsters. Simply give them a teaspoonful or more of Haley's Magnesia-Oil.

It has no oily taste—can be mixed with milk and given children without their knowledge—and it's harmless. A big dose for emergencies is perfectly safe and promptly effective. There is no griping or other unpleasant effect. Haley's Magnesia-Oil is simply milk of magnesia and mineral oil combined.

The oil carries the magnesia straight to the lower bowel, where most "stomach trouble" originates. The milk of magnesia neutralizes the acids and the mineral oil lubricates and aids nature quickly to remove the cause of the trouble. Both work together.

If your druggist can't supply Haley's Magnesia-Oil we will mail a bottle postpaid on receipt of price. Trial size, 35c; family size, $1. The Haley M-O Company, Indianapolis, Ind.

THE HARD BOILED EGG

Since the early days of dietetics when the whole thing was comprised in a series of lists of food items which the victim might or might not eat, the hard boiled egg has struggled under an evil reputation. Among the hypotheses or theories on which the dietetics of yester year rested was the notion that liquid was more "easily digested" than solid food. This fancy perhaps grew out of the observation that invalids too weak to masticate food had to have food poured into their stomachs in liquid form or do without, and it was natural enough to assume that since only broth or soup or milk was fed to invalids only such foods were digestible. That applied also to soft boiled eggs. You can pour a soft boiled or raw egg into an invalid's stomach, but not a hard boiled one. Yet a hard boiled egg is rather more quickly or readily digestible than a soft boiled egg and certainly a hard boiled egg is more readily digestible than a raw egg, provided you eat the hard boiled egg yourself, which implies that you chew it as you would any other hard food or grate or otherwise break it into very small pieces before you swallow it.

The albumen (the white) of an egg, raw or however cooked, must undergo coagulation (curdling) in the process of digestion. In the raw state the albumin is coagulated by the hydrochloric acid in the gastric juice which the stomach secrets when food is taken. Cooking coagulates the albumen and to that extent saves the stomach some of the work of digestion. In the raw egg albumin, moreover, there is present a ferment like substance which tends to resist digestion, so that when considerable quantities of raw egg are ingested, as in attempts at over feeding of certain invalids, an appreciable portion of the albumin is not digested but passes thru the alimentary tract unchanged. It is true that a hard boiled egg remains longer in the normal stomach than a soft boiled egg does. It tarries there perhaps half an hour longer getting digested up to the point where it is in the proper condition to be passed along into the duodenum for further digestion. But this fact probably explains why hard boiled eggs "stay with you" or "stick to your ribs" longer than soft boiled eggs do, and it is a fact worthy of remembering if you happen to be too well nourished and interested in restricting your diet. Fat folks should eat their eggs hard boiled, preferably.

Reasonably hard-boiled, I mean. Say boiled for four to six minutes. A soft boiled egg, as I understand it, is dropped into a pint of boiling water, and the vessel immediately taken off the fire and allowed to stand eight to 10 minutes before the egg is removed from the water. If an egg be cooked too long the albumen is converted into a leathery substance which is difficult or impossible for man to digest.

Eggs poached, coddled, boiled, fried, scrambled or in omelets are about equally digestible and nutritious—it is a matter of individual preference how an egg should be cooked. An egg may be shirred, pickled, even deviled but it shouldn't be damned because it happens to be hard boiled.

BLIND TO SEE, DOCTOR SAYS

Eyes Changed Around During Recent Experiments

FROGS ARE SUBJECTS

Sight Restored in Mice Fish by Chicago Physician

CHICAGO—(By United Press)—What may prove the medical miracle of the century was announced here when Dr. Theodore Kopanyi, a special student at the University of Chicago, submitted proof of complete regeneration of the optic nerve in a series of experiments on fish, frogs and mice.

In these experiments in which the Chicago surgeon claims to have successfully transplanted the visual organs in every instance under observation an entirely new field in optical surgery is open. Making the blind to see is his objective.

The surgeon begins his experiment by ligating the veins and arteries of the eye. Ligature is the application of sharp, blinding pressure. He then proceeds to sever the optic nerve and the muscles of the eye. This accomplished, he transfers the eyes to their opposite sockets.

According to Dr. Kopanyi, gradual restoration of sight occurs within a period of from four to eight weeks. A blind frog, the physician has found, can be distinguished from a normal one by the fact that the latter always turns away from light.

Dr. Kopanyi has demonstrated before university colleagues that frogs which, after the operation, showed absolutely no sensitiveness to light, gradually turned further and further away from it after the tissues of the optic organ had begun to heal. As time passed the visual nerve showed more and more sensitiveness.

EXPERIMENTS WITH MICE

Mice which had been experimented on were placed on a platform. Some cheese lay below. The blind animals would grope for the food and, after an erratic course, would eventually reach it. When sight had been restored, the mice would spring upon the cheese at once bound.

Evidence of restoration of sight in fish was seen by the way the fish disported after the allotted period of blindness as contrasted with the painful movements during that period. Dr. Kopanyi looks forward to performing his miraculous operation on the human eye.

The Chicago surgeon acquired his medical education in Vienna where he studied seven years. Last year he took up residence at the University of Chicago, where he has devoted himself to his wonder-working researches in eye surgery.

But when it came to passing out the league title, a church quintet protested "Midge's" eligibility. She was playing out of her class, its manager said. So the church team won the cup, title and everything. Now the backer of "Midge's" team is suing the church five, individually and collectively, for the trophies it was awarded.

SALMON CANNING ON UPGRADE

Factories Work Overtime to Care for Catch

VICTORIA, B. C. — (By Associated Press) — The salmon run in British Columbia rivers is the largest since the record of 1919, according to reports received by Hon. William Sloan, provincial commissioner of fisheries. Canneries along the Fraser, Skeena and Naas rivers are working day and night shifts in an effort to take care of the catch.

The catch of sockeye, Mr. Sloan said, will be the heaviest in years.

The marked increase in quantity this year will mean greater prosperity for the salmon industry.

The total value of the fisheries production of Canada was $42,565,545 last year, according to the annual report, or an increase in value of $765,335 over 1922.

The amount of capital represented in fishing vessels, boats, nets, traps, piers, and wharves employed in catching and landing fish in 1923 was $23,645,310. The number of men employed in these operations was 53,517.

WORD WELCOME IS DELETED

Stricken from Invitation to German Educators

ACTION TAKEN IN LONDON

Permission Inserted in Place of Omitted Phrase

BERLIN — (By Associated Press) — German educators who have been planning visits to foreign countries, as was the custom prior to the war, were somewhat shocked when reports reached here recently of a debate at a meeting of the Walthamstow Urban council, London, as to whether a German would be welcome to visit the council's schools. It was stated that Dr. Fritz Karsen, principal of the chief secondary school in Berlin, has asked permission to inspect Walthamstow educational institutions and the education committee reported that it was agreed that a welcome should be given all distinguished visitors.

NOT BARRED

Councillor Edwards suggested that in view of the attitude held in England against the Germans on account of the war he would approve deletion of the word "welcome" from the committee's recommendation, and that the word "permission" be inserted instead. He contended that a German should not be welcomed, altho he did not wish him to be kept out of the schools. Councillor Llewellyn said that in ten years' time, when history was written with less perjudice, it would be found that Germany was not the only country responsible for the war. Eventually the committee's recommendations were accepted, but Dr. Karsen has not as yet determined whether he will visit Walthamstow, as contemplated, under the circumstances.

Other German educationalists who have been looking forward to tours of England and other European countires, for the first time since the war, have taken the stand that unless they are welcome at all institutions abroad, which they have proposed to inspect, they would stay away from these particular schools altogether. All foreigners, it has been pointed out, even French professors, have been offered every facility for inspecting the German schools for several years past. Many English teachers have taken advantage of this opportunity, but few Frenchmen have appeared.

MANILA BUILDING HOMES TO WITHSTAND SHOCK AND TREMORS OF EARTHQUAKES

MANILA—Manila is studying what steps it would be advisable to take to guard against devastating effects from an earthquake such as visited Tokio a year ago. Speaking of the importance of this geological work, Dr. R. E. Dickerson, a member of the local earthquake board, said recently: "earthquake lines of the Philip- earthquake lines of the Philippines of particular importance in the construction of dwelling houses, business buildings, water supply, cables and power transmission schemes. It is of particularly great importance to recognize these lines in advance of destructive earthquakes along them, in order that certain precautions be taken in engineering structures.

"Manila is built upon the delta of the Pasig river and its soil is very unconsolidated. That such loosely filled areas suffer far more severely than bed-rock localities is evidenced by all large earthquakes. On this account Manila's higher buildings should be built upon a pile-constructed foundation and preferably of reinforced concrete or steel frame construction, very strongly tied."

GENERAL BUTLER IS DECLARED SERIOUSLY ILL

PHILADELPHIA — The condition of Brigadier General Butler, whose resignation as director of public safety is reported to have been requested by Mayor Kendrick in a letter, the delivery of which has been withheld awaiting his recovery, took a turn for the worse late last night and was said early today to be "not so good."

Director Butler became very weak last night while conversing with George W. Elliott, assistant director of ublic safety, and for a few minutes was unable to speak. Specialists hastily summoned diagnosed his case as a severe attack of bronchitis "bordering on pneumonia" and ordered a complete rest, "mentally and physically" for 48 hours. While they described his condition as serious, the doctors expressed the belief that he would be able to return to his office within a week.

DEATH RATE DROPS AS BIRTHS INCREASE

BUENOS AIRES — Countries with a high birth rate have a high death rate, but there is one exception in the world and that is Argentina, according to Alejandro E. Bunge, economist and government statistician.

In 30 years, Bunge says, Argentina's death rate has dropped from 25 a thousand to 13.6 a thousand, one of the lowest in the world, while a birth rate of 33 a thousand has been maintained. These two facts combined produce a great natural increase in population. The mortality of infants before reaching one year of age is only 10 percent in Argentina, compared with rates of from 9 to 25 percent in other countries.

NAVY SURVEY IS PUT UP TO GENERAL BOARD

WASHINGTON — How naval development and maintenance plans for the next few year, should be shaped in the three branches of submarines, surface ships and aircraft has been referred as a concrete problem for study and recommendation to the general board of the navy.

The action on the proposal of President Coolidge to Secretary Wilbur that the question of naval policy raised by the present trend of development in aircraft be subjected to formal study by experts was taken late yesterday by the secretary. Placing the subject in the hands of the general board, with instructions to report at its earliest convenience was in keeping with President Coolidge's view of the matter, as earlier stayed at the White House, that in its initial stage the aircraft inquiry should be undertaken by the navy department alone.

SQUIRRELS DESTINED FOR WOMEN'S COATS

RIGA — German fur dealers returning from Russia report that the prospects this season are excellent for a plentiful supply of squirrel skins, especially from Siberia, where there is an exceptionally good crop of nuts. Whenever nuts grow abundantly, aver the furriers, there are always plenty of squirrels.

The nut crop thruout Russia is said to be better than in many years. One dealer alone has placed an order for 650,000 squirrel pelts, for winter delivery. Most of these will be made into women's coats in Leipsic, and some will be sold in the United States.

Are using these rare powders

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I did not intend to supply powders to women. My only idea was to furnish them my greatest beauty helps. But thousands of women have urged me, by letter and in person, to tell them the powders I use.

Like all my friends on the stage and in the movies, I use very costly powders. I have them made to my order, and they cost me $5 per box. Our careers depend on our looks, and nothing is too costly.

But I have persuaded the makers to offer these powders at ordinary prices. I order them in quantities, under my name. I offer them at my expense to girls and women who desire the best.

Now all druggists and toilet counters supply Edna Wallace Hopper's Powders. There are two kinds. For myself I prefer a clinging powder, a cold cream powder, based on my Youth Cream. It is enduring. That Youth Cream Powder costs $1. But many women prefer a light and fluffy powder. If you want that kind, it costs but 50 cents. Both kinds come in three shades—white, flesh and brunette.

So far as I know, these powders are the finest in existence. You may be sure that if anyone produced a better powder I would get it quickly. Anyone who uses common powders will gain a new conception of what powders should be.

Let me send you a sample. Just mail this coupon and tell me the kind you want. adv

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:

We are two lassies who are deeply in love. Our ages are 16 and 17 years. One is a blond and the other a brunette. Is it all right for us to have dates once or twice a week? Is it wrong for a girl to sit on their beau's lap? Should boys kiss the girls when they leave? This being leap year, should the girls make dates with the boys, to see them at their homes? Also, should the girls propose? How should you propose to a bashful fellow?

Is the Buster Brown bob in style? Which are more popular, the strapped slippers or oxfords? What should one wardrobe contain? Is basketball a good sport for girls? What would be a good graduation present for a boy 18 years old?

What are some good games to play when several young couples are having entertainment?

What are the meanings of the following names and please give the nicknames for each: Arthur, Martha, Margaret, Carl and Albert.

BASHFUL KIDS.

I think you are too young to go about with the boys, as often and as seriously as you must be. Don't go out with the boys without your parents consent and then I think once a week is quite often enough. You know, as well as I know, that a girl shouldn't sit on a boy's lap, and that they shouldn't allow a boy to kiss them, and that girls don't ask boys for dates and that girls don't propose marriage to young men, don't you? Altho it is an old belief that during the Leap Year, girls may propose, it is very seldom done.

Is it the boyish bob you refer to? That is good style at this time, but there are not a great many people who can wear it attractively. The strapped slippers are being worn for dress, while the oxfords are for street and sport wear. For your wardrobe, I might suggest two or three sweaters, a sport suit of some kind, one or two crepe dresses for "good" and a light crepe de chene or georgette for an evening party. Yes, basketball is considered a very good game for girls. A belt buckle, watch chain, stationery, books, handkerchiefs or ties would be acceptable gifts for a boy graduate.

If you young people do not care for cards, such as bunco, flinch, five hundred then you can get very interesting games at the Public library. You can always arrange a contest or two to add to the evening's entertainment.

Arthur means noble; Margaret means a pearl; Martha means ruler of the house; Carl means illustrious and Albert means nobly bright. "Art" is a common nickname for Arthur, "Peg," "Margie" and "Margery" are nicknames used for Margaret; "Marty" for Martha and "Al" for Albert.

CHORUS GIRLS HERE AND THERE

Over in South Africa the natives wear few or no clothes on the highways. So when the chorus girls come on the stage they cover every inch of their nut brown bodies. That creates a novel illusion. While here in the land of the free and the brave, the girls gown themselves to a point of embarrassment for street wear, but when they get on the stage they don't. Just the converse of the African illusion. This is a pretty nitty country, after all.

Egg Production in County to Be Watched

A nuew poultry project for Ohio farmers to be known as the poultry calendar demonstration had been inaugurated by the poultry department, Ohio State university, according to H. J. Ridge, county agricultural agent.

The department agrees to furnish a calendar, 10 by 15 inches in size, with each monthly card having poultry suggestions pertinent to that month. At the bottom of each monthly card are two perforated postcards which must be filled out with the egg totals for the month. One is to be sent to the farm agent and the other to the poultry department at Ohio State university.

Only 20 will be furnished for distribution in this country and the poultry raisers who wish them must agree to send in the postcards with the egg totals regularly. The calendar starts with the month of November.

"Those farmers who wish to keep all details, are to continue with the demonstration farm project which has been carried on in Allen-co for three years and which takes care of items other than just the egg totals.

There are 29 farmers in the county who have been carrying on the demonstration farm project and all report that it has been a big help to them in making and saving poultry money.

Rex Ingram's "The Arab" With Novarro and Terry

Photoplay of Desert Love Hailed as Brilliant Successor to "The Sheik"

"The Arab," the Rex Ingram production, which is coming next week to the Lyric Theatre, is hailed as a worthy successor to Ingram's last triumph, "Scaramouche." It is a colorful and thrilling story of love and adventure in the land of the Sheiks, adapted from Edgar Selwyn's stage play.

Ramon Novarro and Alice Terry again have the chief roles in Ingram's newest film, and this time they appear as a handsome young Bedouin and the daughter of an American missionary. The remainder of the players were chosen from famous continental actors and the mobs include thousands of Arab and Berber tribesmen.

As the Arab, Novarro is said to have scored the greatest success of his career.

DAVIS CHARGES ANSWERED

Contract Not Let to T. D. Vancamp, Boulay Says

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Taking up the cudgel for his chief, State Highway Director L. A. Boulay, today in a formal statement declared that T. D. Vancamp of Columbus, has done no road construction work for the state during the administration of Governor Donahey. Harry L. Davis, the Republican candidate for governor, had charged that Governor Donahey had received a horse from Vancamp and that Vancamp had received thousands of dollars in road contracts from the state.

Director Boulay says the only contract awarded to any member of the Vancamp family was one to R. E. Vancamp, "said to be the son of T. D. Vancamp," at his low bid of $57,588.99. In contrast to this, Boulay says that T. D. Vancamp was awarded road contracts totaling $169,757.07 during the Davis administration.

The highway director in his statement asserts that under the Davis administration, the maintenance and repair fund was depleted to the extent of $300,,000, "in order that a favorite contractor — one of the Cleveland crowd — could be handed a number of fat contracts. This was manipulated thru the use of a patented type of pavement on which the favorite contractor had the inside, and by increasing enormously items for which he was paid exorbitant prices."

"The facts in this matter," Boulay says, "are well known to engineers, contractors and others interested in highway construction, and constituted one of the big scandals of the Davis administration of the highway department."

With ROOSEVELT IN AFRICA

by W. Robert Foran

© 1924 NEA Service Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Robert Foran, newspaper correspondent, accompanies the Theodore Roosevelt expedition into Africa in 1909. They arrive at Mombassa, the port of "British East Africa," and then make the railroad journey and then make camp on the game-crowded Kapiti Plains. With Colonel Roosevelt are his son, Kermit and three scientific members of his staff—Major Edgar A. Mearns, Edmund Heller and J. Alden Loring.

After a wonderfully successful shooting trip in the Sotik country, the safari makes camp for more hunting near a town called Naivasha. Here the party meets with more good sport. Foran and Colonel Roosevelt set out to shoot a rhino for the museum. The hunt is unsuccessful, however.

HOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Kermit and Mearns had been out after spring-haas the previous night, and had been fairly successful shooting them with the aid of lanterns. They had not got back to bed in camp until after three o'clock. We found Mearns up and having breakfast, when we reached camp after our unsuccessful hunt after pelicans; Kermit, however, was still sleeping off the effects of his night-hunting exertions.

After breakfast, Colonel Roosevelt, Kermit and myself—having now secured a pair of oars for the boat—started out once more after the pelicans. The Colonel cautiously. To his amazement he found that she was dead.

"We found on examination that Judd's chance shot had sent a bullet thru her eye and killed her instantaneously. There was not even a mark on the skin."

"By gosh!" exclaimed Roosevelt. "What a remarkable incident! I bet Judd's mighty proud of that trophy."

"He is," agreed Selous, as he rose to shake hands and wish Colonel Roosevelt goodby and good luck for the remainder of his trip.

Colonel Roosevelt, Kermit, Dawson and myself had left Naivasha for Nairobi at seven o'clock that morning. Cunninghame was to follow by a special train later with the Sotik specimens and Kermit's pony for the meeting of the Nairobi Turf Club. The three naturalists were to stay at Naivisha until our reutrn about a week later.

The traffic manager's own saloon coach had been attached to the train for Colonel Roosevelt's comfort, but we all rode at frequent intervals on the cowcatcher seat. We reached Nairobi at mid-day and found the platform crowded with people who had come to welcome the ex-president at in the bow with his rifle across his knees and a shot-gun at his side; Kermit sat in the stern with his two guns; while I rowed and a native gun-bearer steered for me.

Roosevelt made a very pretty shot at two Egyptian geese, and dropped them both; they were hit the wing, and it was a difficult shot. After we had picked them up from the water, we saw the pelicans. But this time there were only two of them, instead of four. As we gradually neared them, with as little noise as possible, Colonel Roosevelt put his rifle to his shoulders and prepared to shoot. I rowed the boat within 50 yards of them, and then stopped rowing as I was afraid of alarming them. Taking steady aim and allowing for the gentle rocking of the boat, Roosevelt fired.

Away flew the two big birds, and we thought he had missed them. Suddenly, however, one of them flopped down into the water, and lay motionless on its side. I rowed hastily toward our quail, and we had soon recovered it.

We knew that the doctor would be overjoyed, for he badly wanted a pelican for his collection of birds. The other bird, however, would not let us approach near enough for Kermit to shoot at it.

CHAPTER XII

Race Week in Nairobi

"No, I didn't have any luck on this trip—not a single lion."

It was Selous who spoke, and his voice was inexpressibly sad and disappointed. He stood talking to Theodore Roosevelt on the railroad platform at Nairobi. Our train had just come in from Naivasha, and we found Selous waiting for it to proceed onward to Mombasa, where he was to embark for home.

He had just completed a two-months' shooting trip with McMillan, Williams and Judd, the professional hunter. He had not even had the chance of a shot at a lion; yet Williams had killed two easily, and had been badly mauled by a third who charged after being mortally wounded. His gun-bearer had pluckily killed it over him and thus had saved his master's life.

"But Judd had a remarkable adventure," went on the gentle voice of Selous, as the two men sat side by side on a bench on the platform. "Judd and I saw a couple of lionesses, and galloped after them. That was in the Molo district. Judd was some eighty yards or so behind me, riding a mule. I suddenly missed one of the lionesses, but carried on after the other. The other lioness stopped, apparently, and crouched behind a thick bush. She let me pass, and then sprang at Judd.

"She was about ten yards or so from Judd, when he saw her; and he fired at her from his hip, never hoping to hit her but just praying that she might be turned. As he fired, his mule bucked him off, and when he landed, he found that he had fallen almost touching the lioness. Judd quickly reloaded; but the lioness lay on her side and never moved. Judd rose to his feet quickly and examined her on his return from the Sotik. McMillan, who was to be his host in Nairobi, was there with Selous to meet him, and Roosevelt and Selous were soon busy comparing the results of their two safaris.

It was a very keen disoppointment to Colonel Roosevelt that he was not to have an opportunity to enjoy a fortnight's hunting in the company of Selous, as he had hoped. Selous had to hasten home. This was to have been Selous' last trip to Africa; but, as it will be remembered, he returned there during the World War and died gloriously as he had lived, while leading his native soldiers against the Germans. He was game to the last, won the Distinguished Service Order at the age of seventy for gallantry on the active service, and died as he would have wished.

Nairobi was filled with people from all over the country for the meeting of the Nairobi Turf Club and the public banquet to Theodore Roosevelt had brought everyone to the capital. Race week in Nairobi is always a gay time, but this particular week was to be more than usually brilliant on account of the fortunate presence of the ex-president of the United States. One long succession of festivities had been arranged for weeks in advance, and not a day passed without Colonel Roosevelt and Kermit being entertained at lunch, dinner or some other social function.

The Nairobi Club gave a big ball in his honor, at which both Colonel Roosevelt and Kermit danced vigorously. And during this festive week, Colonel Roosevelt planted a tree outside the offices of the Boma Trading Company, beside one that had been recently planted by the Duke of Connaught. On this occasion he was presented with a very fine silvermounted Arab knife in a native-wood box.

The stewards of the East African Turf Club gave a dinner to Colonel Roosevelt and Kermit on the first night of the races, and it was a real pleasure to see how keenly Roosevelt entered into the gay spirit of that gathering.

During dinner he had touched his lips to a glass of champagne once, and then had fallen back upon lemon-squashes. His glass of champagne remained beside his place all the evening, as full of the golden fluid as when it was poured out.

THE TANGLE

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO RUTH BURKE, CONTINUED

My whole life, Ruth, is bound up in John and my adopted son. Perhaps if I were a lighter type of woman, I would make John happier. I remember his telling me once that there were women in this world who have loved men devotedly and yet made them unhappy every day in the week. I don't want to be one of that kind of women.

I know it would break my heart to have John go out of my life, yet I cannot bear this constant quarreling we have seemed to have lately.

It may seem to you, my dear, strange that a woman in my condition should morbidly think of leaving her husband. Of course, with me, neither myself nor my children would be dependent upon John for support.

The other day at a luncheon a number of newly wedded women were discussing another one who was just getting a divorce.

Said one of them: "I think I would have tried to stick it out a little longer had I been Lucille. A man usually comes back repentant and contrite."

"But it takes so much out of you!" I said impulsively. "There are other things beside 'a tear too much or a kiss too long' that change life so it is never the same again.'"

"I think," said another woman about the table, "that it is because we are less patient than our mothers and grandmothers were that the proportion of divorces to marriages has reached such an alarming figure."

"No," answered another woman, "I believe there were just as many unhappy women and just as many impatient women belonging to the mid-Victorian era as there are today. But divorce is now more prevalent because there are more women who are economically independent."

"What a horrid idea," spoke up a bride."

"Not at all," answered the speaker. "I believe many of our mothers and grandmothers stuck it out because they just didn't know what else to do. Now almost all women know that somewhere, if they will honestly work, they will find a husband's support is not necessary. Consequently they do not submit as often to anything that is not a fifty-fifty proposition."

"But the children," spoke up another.

"Yes, what of the children?" interrupted an older woman who had the reputation of being a very unhappy wife. "I wish some one would decide for me whether it would be better for children to grow up in a home with constantly bickering parents, a home filled with unhappiness or unrest, or whether they would be better off if the parents separated and they went with either one or the other of them.

"I sometimes think," she added almost to herself, "that 'home' is another one of those words that we worship blindly without stopping to think of what it might be composed."

Ruth, this conversation was extremely illuminating to me. I found out that other women were not only thinking but discussing the very question that seemed in my case unique.

PIRATES WEAK ATTACK NEARLY GIVES M'GRAW THE FLAG

Locals Play St Louis Browns Here Tuesday; Scrappers Hitch Up At Delphos Tonight

ROOKIES AID GIANTS IN REMAINING GAMES

NEW YORK — (By United Press) — Crippled and torn from their hardest fight in four years, the New York Giants have reached the point where they seem reasonably certain of winning the National League pennant.

It was plainly apparent in the actions of the Pittsburg Pirates at the Polo Grounds yesterday that they felt the same way about it and that it didn't make much difference what happened to them.

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF

NEW YORK—The major league pennant battles now raging rank among the closest ever fought but they have yet to eclipse the record of 1908 when uncertainty over the outcome went down to the final day of the season in both leagues.

Curiously enough, three clubs, then, as this year, figured in the final pennant drives.

The New York Giants lost the National League pennant to the Chicago Cubs 16 years ago when the famous "bone" of Fred Merkle, who failed to touch second in a game between these two rivals, was a contributing factor which caused a replay at the end of the season which resulted in victory and the pennant for Frank Chance's club.

It was a three cornered race that year among the Giants, Pirates and Cubs and the Chicago outfit put its two rivals out of the race in the last two games. The Cubs closed the regular season with the Pirates. Victory meant a pennant for Pittsburgh in the final game but Chicago won and clinched its place at the top. The Giants, however, tied it up by winning three straight from Boston, only to have the Cubs turn them back in the deciding playoff battle.

Meanwhile three teams also were battling it out in the American League—Detroit, Chicago and Cleveland. The Indians, with three games to play with St. Louis, could clinch the flag by taking them all. But they lost one and the decision then rested on the outcome of a game between Detroit and Chicago on the final day of the season. The Tigers, with Bill Donovan pitching, won and gained the right to meet the Cubs in the world's series.

Jimmy O'Connell knocked in two runs with his first homer of the season and Rabbit Maranville, who played erratically in the Brooklyn series, heaved a wild one to the plate and presented the Giants with some more runs.

The Giants increased their lead over the Brooklyn Robins to a little more than a full game while the Cubs were beating the Runners-up.

Dazzy Vance, greatest pitcher of the year, lost a tough one. He allowed only four hits in ten innings, but he threw three home run balls and blew the game.

SUBS PLAY WELL

With Giants a game ahead of the Robins and 2 1-2 games in front of the Pirates, the champions have an easier way now to a new baseball record of four pennants in succession. The real quality of Giants in being shown in their present emergency. Frisch, Groh and Meusel, three regulars are out of the line-up but McGraw has so many capable reserves that they may not be missed. Lindstrom and O'Connell, two sustitutes, practically won the game when they got the first two hits off Lee Meadows, yesterday and scored two runs which were enough to win the game.

The Giants have five more games to play, the Robins have three and the Pirates seven. If the Giants win four out of their five remaining games they will win the pennant even if the Robins win their three games. The Pirates would have to win their seven games to finish in a tie if the champions won three out of their five games.

The Senators and the Yankees won their games yesterday and the situation remained unchanged in the American League with the Washington club leading by two full games.

MUCH DEPENDS ON TODAY

NEW YORK (By Associated Press)—At the Polo Grounds today Pittsburgh will forcefully protest the betrothal of Miss National League to the Harlem Giant or forever hold his peace. Meanwhile, Father Knickerbocker prepares for the ceremony at which the Robins must apparently be content to sing.

The warrior from the west fell from a strategic drawbridge into the moat of a 5 to 1 defeat and will make a lefthanded attempt to enter the castle on Coogan's Bluff today, led by Emil Yde.

John, laird of the clan McGraw, stationed an apparently decrepit Giant at the gate. Terry at first, Lindstrom at third and O'Connell in center, were raw substitutes and Kelly, a stranger at second base. Wilson, a first year man, was in left and Gowdy, a war veteran, behind the bat. The Pirates charged boldly.

In the second inning Lindstrom cracked a single and O'Connell a $75,000 beauty, hit what may prove to be a $100,000 home run into the top tier of the stands. In the seventh, after Terry and Young were passed, Wilson singled and Gowdy, the old soldier, cleaned up with a double. In the eighth Kelly checked a Pirate rally with two fine plays. McQuillan pitched splendidly while Meadows faltered twice.

As a result of the victory the Giants, who played like champions throughout, lead the Pirates by two and one half games. Another victory today will all but check the Pirates out of the race. McKechnie's team can still clinch the pennant however, by winning all of their games.

POOR ROBIN REDBREAST

Brooklyn was virtually eliminated yesterday by the Cubs who qualified as best team for the Giants by trimming Dazzy Vance, 5 to 4, in 10 innings, altho they secured only four hits and Vance fanned 11 batters. Three of the Chicago blows were homers, two by Grantham, one coming with two men on. The Robins are a full game behind the Giants with only three left to play.

MORE AND MORE LIKE IT

Washington maintained its two game lead over the Yankees in the American as both clubs won. The Senators were pressed to the limit by the White Sox who drove Mogridge from the box but sensational holding by the leaders checked the attempt and won, 7 to 6.

The Yankees scored another easy victory over Cleveland, 8 to 2, but must win all of their five remaining games while Washington loses three of its five, to win the bunting. The Senators can cinch the flag by taking four or tie by winning three.

TIGERS KEEP WINNING

Detroit won its fifth straight game, defeating Boston 3 to 2 and the Athletics sharpened up their bats for the series with the Yankees by beating the Browns, 11 to 9. Cincinnati retained fourth place in the National by defeating Boston, 4 to 1, and the Cardinals won a ten inning game from the Phillies, 8 to 7.

STAR AMONG FIELDERS

JOHNNY TOBIN

Johnny Tobin, right fielder of the St. Louis Browns, is one of the bright stars of the American league. He is a brilliant fielder, exceptionally fast and one of the best base runners in the game. He shows a batting average of .305 in 135 games, according to the latest releases. He will be here with the Browns, when they play the local team on the Murphy-st grounds Sept. 30.

Gridders Get Ready For Saturday

Central Hi football men were put thru a stiff signal and scrimmage practice Tuesday evening at College field by Coach Ward Young in preparation for their game this coming Saturday with Bucyrus Hi at Bucyrus.

Central will travel to Bucyrus confident of victory. The locals put their first game on the win side of their won and lost column by defeating Celina here last Saturday, 19 to 6, and they intend to keep on winning. Bucyrus has lost three of their best players by injuries and this has weakened their team to some extent. Captain Eddie Norton, with a broken leg, was one of the three to be forced out of the game.

ACTIVITIES AT SOUTH HI

Coach Galberach at South gave his men a heavy workout Tuesday evening, the first of a series of three to be given the team this week for Bellefontaine, who comes here Saturday. Galberach will send his men thru a light practice session Friday night.

Charles Throckmorton, halfback and one of the stars of this year's squad at South, hurt his knee in scrimmage Tuesday. It is unlikely however, that his injury will keep him out of the game.

ALL STARS IN BIG GAME

There is big preparations going on for the game Tuesday, Sept. 30 between the St. Louis Browns and the local team at Murphy-st grounds. Manager Halloran has booked this famous team for a game on that date. It is specifically understood and agreed to that all the stars of that team will play in this game.

It is not the calibre of players connected with the Browns that has held them down in the great American league race, but to the fact that what was at the beginning of the season conceded one of the best pitching staffs in that league, could not get going. Shocker, Vangilder, Danforth and Davis, all made records last season, that builded the reason for the most prominent sport writers promising that the team would be among the leaders at the end of this season. It was not the fielding strength or the batting ability; these were conceded brilliant, and so they are. It was simply that the pitching was away off calibre throut the entire season, excepting in spots.

The memorable winning streak of the Browns in the first part of the season will not be forgotten, when they beat the Boston Red Sox out of the lead and stayed there for a time.

This same strong team will play against the best that Lima can muster next Tuesday. It is promised that Tobin, Robertson, Williams, McMannus, Jacobson, Gerber and all the rest of the Browns will be in the lineup. Who will pitch is not known at this early date, but it will be one of their regular pitchers. Severeid will be behind the plate.

Manager Halloran is getting together one of the strongest teams that ever represented Lima on the ball field. Bud Hungling will be behind the bat; Fred Lorimer, of the Birmingham Southern league or Westbay, who has been pitching great ball this season will pitch. "Bust'em" Shaffer, Joe Lindecker, Mickie Heath, also of the Birmingham Southern league team, together with the pick of the old players, for it would be very difficult to improve on Costello, Bible, Fish and several of the others who have been playing such fast ball all season. It is safe to say the Browns will have to play fast to beat this bunch.

Lima has been able to book this game thru the Browns playing at Cleveland Sept. 29, which is the end of the season. Word comes from many outside towns for reservations. It seems certain that a record crowd will be on hand.

BOWLING

The first bowling match of the season at the Recreation alleys will be held Thursday night between the Crawford Bootery team and the Harley Davidson team. The Crawfords have a complete new line up this year which is as follows: Reese, Shirk, Schimpf, Neely, Fetherolf and Crawford, while the Harley Davidsons have the same line up as last year.

The All Star league line up for this season is about complete; there is only one team that has not been entered as yet.

The girls' league will be in full swing again this year with either four or six teams, there being three teams completed now with the prospects of three more. There will also be an Industrial league, a Merchants league and the Recreation league which is composed of bowlers in their first or second year.

AURORA, Ill.—Eddie "Kid" Wagner, of Philadelphia and Mike Dundee, of Rock Island, contenders for the junior lightweight championship, will meet here tonight in a 12-round battle.

NABHOLTZ DAY PLANNED AT SHAWNEE

BY HARRY BRADBURY
Sports Editor

"That will be right at the pin," were the words Walter Hagen used, who was a looker on—one of the gallery, in the now famous match between Barnes and Larry Nabholtz. But it was an unlucky shot, a wonderful drive but the ball hit a hard bit of ground, on the back edge of the green: took on more speed and finally trickled over and down a steep bank, and while Larry approached back to the green; made a 5, Barnes took two putts; made 4 and won the match.

But it was this match and this particular tournament at French Lick, that raised an otherwise unknown golfer to the very top of the procession. He had beaten Sarazen handily; had worked his way up from a total of sixty-one players, until but three others remained. He came out of these matches with more glory than even the winner; for Hagen is an old player and has won every trophy worth winning in the professional golf world, while Nabholtz with all his brilliancy, lacked experience. It is realized and admitted that the Lima pro. lost on a fluke. In the semi-finals Barnes, who had been down to Nabholtz thruout the thirty-five holes of play variably gave up the match. A turn of fate, if you please; Lady Luck hovering around the fortunate player.

So the young man returned to his accustomed haunts around the hills and dales of beautiful Shawnee, the expression of a lady golfer, best exemplifies the sentiment when she told the lad she was proud of him: "We are all proud of you, Larry boy."

And he takes his triumph and ill luck thrown in, philosophically. Just as modest and with no expression of ego; that's the most likable requisite of the young player.

Leave Wednesday or Thursday for open tourneys at St. Louis, Kansas City and Wichita, Kansas," he said. "$15,000 in purses and I'll have just about the same opposition that I had at French Lick." But you can't get him to express himself on what he thinks he's going to do: too modest, too circumspect; not an iota of braggadocia in Larry Nabholtz. And while talking to the interviewer, he made several suggestions to a player regarding the proper shape of the end of a driving stick.

"I've got plenty to keep me busy right here," he continued. "I'll be back in a couple of weeks and remain until January, when I start for California, where I intend to make a winter tour. I have as a partner in this venture Bill Mehlhorn, who you know is the western open champ.

"You like it here, at old Shawnee?"

"That's the worst regret," he answered. "I've found everybody so congenial; pleasant, and I've made so many friends, that it's hard to leave; hard to sever ties like these." But all the persuasion in the world wouldn't be sufficient to even make him hint at his future plans. That he has several glowing offers, is only supposition, but it is certain the latest star on the golf horizon naturally would have.

HIS RISE TO FAME

Larry Nabholtz began his golf experience as a caddy boy at Sharon, Pa., where he was born February 18, 1901, in 1917-18. In the latter part of 1918 he went to the Pittsburgh Country club as an assistant to Prof. Davy Robertson. He filled out part of the season there and returned to Sharon late in the fall. In 1920 he went to Meadville Country club and was there part of two years. He left there in 1921 and came to Lima where he has been evre since.

ALWAYS A GOOD PLAYER

The Lima golfer has always been able to swing a driver; has always been an exceptionally fine player. He qualified among the best golfers in the world at the Skokee tourney, in Chicago in 1922, where he tied Charley Hoffner 147 strokes in 36 holes. It was this tournament that Sarazen won, while Larry landed one-stroke behind. He has the course records at Marion which he negotiated in 69; Mansfield, 71; Lima, 69; Greenville, Pa. Country club, 35; Meadville, 32; Sharon, 33; Cambridge Country club, 33, and Bella Vista at Erie, Pa. in 28. These are all course records that still stand.

LARRY NABHOLTZ DAY

Larry Nabholtz day is being planned by golfters of the Shawnee Country club for the very near future. It will take on the form of a testimonial to the sterling and brilliant golf the Lima pro. played in the national tourney at French Lick. That he came out of the matches with more glory than any other player, not excepting Hagen himself, is admitted by every one of his friends.

Following his return from the tourneys stated above, this testimonial will be given, with golfers from all the surrounding cities present. After play in the afternoon a big dinner will be served, and the popular little golfer will be presented with a handsome token. It will be a big day for a great golfer.

AL DUNDEE BOXES ASHER

All is in readiness for the big boxing show to be held at Delphos this Wednesday evening. "Babe" Asher has reported and is in the pink of condition for his go with Al Dundee. It is conceded that this bout will be a hard and a fast one. The ex-amateur has met some of the best boys in the country at the bantamweight limit and has always been able to take care of himself.

Don Baxter, the local boxer, expresses himself as confident that he will beat Moxie Holub, altho this boy has been coming along fast in his last few bouts, winning eleven out of his last twelve bouts. The Akron newsboy is very popular as a boxer everywhere they know him. He always serves the best he has against his opponent and it is certain that Don will have to go some to get the decision, or keep away from "slumberland."

The sale of seats has been sufficient to insure a good crowd. The high quality of the boxers should merit this. Lima will be well represented at the ringside, more numerously than Delphos, and there are large delegations going from all the surrounding towns.

The old warhorse, and hero of more hard battles than any living pugilist — Battling Nelson — will referee all the bouts. He will also give a short description of some of his memorable battles.

Many Shots Straight At Target

CAMP PERRY, O. — A variety of matches was on today's program of the National Rifle Association shoot here. With the national individual pistol match not to be finished until Friday, Captain W. A. Hedden, United States infantry, Fort Benning, Ga., led today with a score of 277 out of a possible 300. Lieutenant Louis V. Jones, United States infantry winner of the president's match yesterday, won the national individual last year.

Today's program included the individual police pistol match which was started yesterday; and the American expeditionary forces; infantry; 200 yard "any rifle"; individual civilian and the club members' matches. The winner of the American expeditionary forces match receives a trophy presented by the Roumanian government at the inter-allied rifle competition in 1919.

Thrills in "Sea Hawk"

Frank Lloyd's production of "The Sea Hawk," by Rafael Sabatini, author of "Scaramouche," is attracting crowds at the Sigma theatre this week.

"The Sea Hawk" deals with the romance and sacrifice of Sir Oliver Tressilian, who shortly after the announcement of his marriage to Rosamound Godolphin is accused of murdering her brother, is kidnaped, taken to sea by a profligate sea captain and later made a galley slave on a Spanish Galleon when the pirate ship is captured. After many months of toil at the big oars, many privations and long hours to give to brooding of his misfortune, Oliver escapes. He becomes the commander of an Algerian ship, returns to England, kidnaps Rosamund and his own brother and forces the latter to confess to the murder of which he is accused.

This is all vividly related and the dramatic adventure contains many thrills and much that is original and entertaining.

Milton Sills plays the principal character of the play with Enid Bennett, Lloyd Hughes, Wallace Beery Wallace MacDonald, Marc MacDermott, William Collier, Jr., and many other well known screen folk in support.

Four ancient ships, said to have cost over a quarter of a million dollars to build, an entire Algerian city, with historical slave markets, and a wardrobe valued at more than $85,000 are but a few of the unusual features of "The Sea Hawk."

SEEK TO ENLIST WOMEN IN LA FOLLETTE FIGHT

WASHINGTON — A step to enlist further women's support in the American Federation of Labor's campaign in behalf of the LaFollette-Wheeler independent ticket was taken by its non-partisan political campaign executive committee today in instructing all state and local committees to add women to their membership. Many of the committees already have women members, it was said, and it was desired that all have a joint membership in order to conduct the campaign most effectively.

In a statement on the work of the committees, Matthew Woll, vice president of the labor federation and a member of the executive committees, Matthew Woll, vice president of the labor federation and a member of the executive committee, said there already is a network of them throughout the country "doing hard work for LaFollette and Wheeler and for congressional and state candidates." He reported the enthusiasm wonderful and the outlook almost beyond belief."

"Taming a Husband"

The program to be given by a number of local young people under the direction of Hal Mordaunt at the Faurot Opera house Friday night is attracting considerable attention because of the variety of offerings to be presented.

"Taming a Husband" is a farce to be seen here for the first time. Miss Elizabeth Lippincott will be given an exceptional opportunity in the part of the wife and will be given able support by Hal Mordaunt.

A romantic drama is to be given under the title of "The Open Gate." Several local players have been cast in this playlet which is said to be very interesting.

"The Dancing Kiddies" will be a pleasing diversion and another novelty will be "Ostler Joe," a revival of Mrs. James Brown Potter's successful vehicle.

Glenn Hunter

A large part of the interest that is being shown in "Merton of the Movies," to be presented at the Faurot Opera house the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 30, for one performance only, lies in the fact that Glenn Hunter is the star.

Hunter created the part of Merton Gill, the movie-struck dry goods clerk, in New York production and its success was largely due to his convincing characterization. He will be supported by practically the original company at the showing here.

Indications are that "Merton of the Movies" will be one of the most popular of all productions to be offered at the Faurot during the present season.

TWO CHARGES

Tousley was given a week in which to raise the money. He told the court that he owes $4,500 on his property.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely, and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail. adv

"Short Change" Artist Visits Local Stores

Two Lima business houses were victimized Tuesday evening by a well-dressed, smooth-talking young "short change" artist who obtained $17.40 by means of the time-worn "$10-bill" game.

Mrs. Effie Breese, of Trasler's cafe, paid $9.20 for her lesson and it cost Mark Rubenelli, a clerk in a downtown store, $7.50.

Both were taken in by a young man who was about 30 years of age, who made purchases at the two stores and in each case tendered a $10 bill in payment They gave him his change at each place, and placed the bill in the register.

After receiving the change he asked for the $10 again, saying he had found the correct change in his pocket. The bill was returned to him and he handed the clerk the original cost of the purchase, leaving the store with both the bill and the change.

TWO GERMAN WAR SPIES BEING HELD BY BRITISH

LONDON—Stories of the sometimes romantic exploits of spies are recalled by the release from Dartmoor prison of Courtenay Henslot de Rysbach, who in October, 1915, was sentenced to penal servitude for life as a spy in Germany's service

De Rysbach, a vaudeville actor and the son of a one-time Austrian subject who was naturalized in England, was arrested after the postal censor had stopped two songs mailed by him to an address in Switzerland. One was "The Ladder of Love" and the other was "On the Way to Dublin." When they were chemically treated, an account of conditions in England written in invisible ink appeared. After imprisonment De Rysbach divulged German espionage methods.

At the Home Office it is stated that only two spies now remain in prison in this country.

PAPER CURRENCY URGED TO REPLACE GOLD BASIS

LONDON — Great Britain digs gold in South Africa to pay her war debt to America, and America buries the precious metal again so that it will not circulate with the economic life of the United States, Pethick Lawrence Labor member of Parliament, told an audience recently at the Independent Labor Party Summer School at Cloughton, near Scarborough

"It is almost comic," said Mr. Lawrence, "that we employ people to dig gold from under the earth and send it to those who bury it under the earth."

The speaker, who is one of the intellectuals of the British Labor movement, referred to the annual payment Great Britain makes to the United States in settlement of the enormous debt left over from the war He said that events of the decade had destroyed confidence in the gold basis, and that a paper basis for currency must be established.

JAP AUTHOR COMMENTS ON WAR WITH AMERICA

TOKIO — "Will There Be War Between Japan and America?" is the title of a book just published in Tokio by a noted Japanese author, Toshio Fujiwara, who, in addition to being a writer, is one of Japan's leading business men. He has lived for several years in the United States, where he served the Mitsui interests.

Among the most interesting chapters are the following: "Roosevelt's Threat Against Japan," "How the Anti-Japanese Movement is Carried on in the United States"; "How American Former Service Men Carry on the Movement Against Japan;" "Japan's Future Course with respect to the United States."

The book is having a wide circulation in Japan, and has received favorable comment from many thoughtful critics.

5 Operations—15 years suffering with constipation—Kellogg's Bran restores health

Mr. Lancing's case is typical of thousands of others. He found permanent relief from constipation in Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. Read what he says:

Dear Sir:

I have been afflicted with constipation for the past 15 years, and during that time I have been in four different hospitals and submitted to five different operations that were the result of constipation. I was getting so bad that every meal I ate soured on my stomach. Two months ago I was advised to eat your Kellogg's Krumbled Bran. I tried it, as I was trying everything I could hear of. From that day on I have never taken a physic My stomach does not sour any more and my bowels move regularly morning and evening. Yours sincerely,

Frank Lancing.
1506 Jefries Ave., Marion, Ind.

For permanent relief, eat Kellogg's Bran regularly. Two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the delicious nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran—so different from ordinary brans, which are unpalatable. Eat Kellogg's Bran with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes given on the package.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is served by leading hotels and clubs in individual packages. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — A strong underlying demand for stocks held prices firm at the opening of today's market. Several large blocks of low-priced issues changed hands, including 4,000 shares of Corn Products at 35, up 3-8. Price changed in other stocks, while mainly higher, were confined to narrow limits with the exception of General Baking which mounted a point to a new 1924 high.

The pace of the advance quickened appreciably in the later dealings, with seasoned dividend paying rails and high grade specialties leading the upward movement. General Electric, Nash Motors, General Baking, National Lead and Beechnut Packing moved up 2 to 3 points. Union Pacific, Atlantic Coast Line, Lackawanna and other railroad issues responded to the favorable showing of the first batch of August earnings reports. Advances of 1 to 1 1-2 points in these shares also were registered by Coco Cola, Davison Chemical, Western Union and United Railways Investment. Recognized industrial leaders found increasing favor with Mack Truck touching 101 5-8, American Can 131, United States Steel 109 3-8 and Baldwin 124 3-8, the highest levels on the current move. Foreign exchanges opened firm.

Bullish demonstrations in an assortment of minor stocks, many of which apparently reflected pool operations, brought more general buying in the representative shares, including the southern and southwestern rails. Southern Railway at 70 sold within a fraction of the year's highest level and Seaboard Air Line preferred, St. Louis Southwestern and Atlantic Coast Line ruled materially higher. Railway Steel Spring extended its gain another two points to 128 and U. S. Cast Iron Pipe achieved a record high price at 110 1-2. Cosden was subjected to selling pressures on rumors of new financing and General Baking broke four points from its early high on realizing. Activity slackened toward midday following a resumption of profit-taking in pivotal industrials. Call money opened at two per cent.

A broad upward movement of prices took place in today's stock market under the leadership of the rails and public utilities. Active short covering stimulated the advance but there was good buying for the long account on favorable merger, dividend and trade reports. Sales approximated 1,000,000 shares.

The closing was strong.

PRICE OF WHEAT ON DECLINE

Advance in Early Trading is Followed by Drop

MARKET EASY AT CLOSE

Losses in Corn Quotations Also Registered

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — Liberal new export business in rye led to a fresh upturn in all grain prices today after a weak start. A wave of buying swept over the various cereal pits as soon as the fact developed that European demand for rye was unabated. In the wheat trade, however, there was free selling at first on the part of commission houses, largely of a profit-taking character. The wheat opening which ranged from 1-2c lower to 5-8c gain with December $1.34 3-4 to 1.35 and May $1.41 to 1.41 1-2, was followed by a moderate general decline and then by a sharp advance to well above yesterday's finish.

Favorable weather eased down corn and oats until rye and wheat became strong. After opening at 1-2c lower to 3-4c advance, December $1.05 1-8 to 1.05 1-2, the corn market underwent a sag, all around, but then showed gains.

Oats started at 1-4c off, to 3-4 cents up, December 51 1-2 to 51 5-8. Later all deliveries showed something of a setback and then scored an advance. Provisions went higher with grain

Wheat closed easy. 1-2c to 1 1-8c net lower. December $1.34 1-2 to 1.34 5-8 and May $1.40 1-4 to 1.40 3-8

Corn closed heavy, 2 1-4 to 2 5-8 net lower, December $1.02 1-2 to 1.02 3-4.

Happy After Years of Misery

Hundreds of Women Grateful for Relief from Suffering

A Woman's Thankful Message

I write in praise of your treatment, for it has done so much for me. I suffered until I would rather have been dead, and feared I never would know the joy of motherhood. I couldn't walk, ride, work or do anything worth while, but thanks to you I am relieved of my trouble.

If I had heard of your treatment 3 or 4 years ago I could have been happy all these years, which have been misery. If any sufferer wishes to write me I will gladly answer.

MISS DORA FOWLER, Greenville, S. C.

Gratitude from Judge's Wife

I was nervous and run down before I began your treatments, but now I am very grateful for the great benefit they have been to me. I could not be without them, and if this letter will help some other sufferer you have my permission to use it.

MRS. J. J. GRIMM, Wilber, Neb. (Wife of County Judge)

Worth Weight in Gold

I have been using your treatments and find them all you claim them to be. They have helped me wonderfully. Have used other treatments for 5 years and have found nothing that gave such quick relief. MAMIE KELLY, New York, N.Y.

Don't Worry and Suffer

You can't do better than seriously consider these letters, taken from hundreds which thankful women have written us. The relief from pain and misery which they have experienced should point the way to every woman who suffers with ailments of womankind.

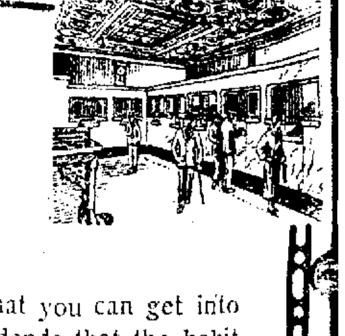

Ten Days FREE Trial—Send No Money

Test Mrs. Summers' Opaline Remedy for yourself, in your own home, without the knowledge or aid of anyone. If you are benefitted as thousands have been, you can continue the treatments at about 12c per week. For 25 years women have reported it successful even in longest, most obstinate cases. Used by old and young and does not interfere with daily work. Write in confidence, as your letter is opened, read and answered by a woman. But don't delay happiness another day.
